

God Is Not A Cow!

Some people, oh, they tell me
That God does not exist,ⁱ
That they can do just what they want,
On this they do insist.

And others, oh, they tell me
That God was just a man:
He didn't make the universe,ⁱⁱ
He doesn't have the plan.ⁱⁱⁱ

And others, oh, they tell me
That God, He is 'the force,'
That He is not a person,
And thus, He has no voice.^{iv}

And others, oh, they tell me
That God's part of the sea,
He's part of the flowers,
And He is part of me.^v

And others, oh, they tell me
That God, He is a log
Carved just like an animal,
A cat or fish or dog.^{vi}

And others, oh, they tell me
That God, He is a cow,^{vii}
So, we eat Him for dinner,
And there's no need to bow.

And many of these people,
Today, they teach in schools,^{viii}
And act like they believe all this,
Cause they don't like His rules.^{ix}

But, His rules, they are to bless us,
To live a better life,^x
So, we will love each other^{xi}
And not have so much strife.

But, we've all sinned and broke His rules,^{xii}
And sin, it costs a price.^{xiii}
So He came down and died for us,^{xiv}
So we could all be nice.

For God, He truly loves us,^{xv}
He loves us first and most,^{xvi}
That's why He took our punishment,^{xvii}
And sent the Holy Ghost.^{xviii}

So now He will forgive us,^{xix}
And help us to obey,^{xx}
When we accept His love and rule
And ask Him in to stay.

And His love, it is forever,^{xxi}
He'll live with us each day,^{xxii}
And when our work is finished here,
In Heaven we will stay.^{xxiii}

F.Y.I. – 'Atheism' teaches that God does not exist – there is no god above us. 'Monism' teaches that all things are one and the same—there is no essential difference between God, rocks, germs, cows, maggots or people—which is simply another way of saying – there is no god above us. 'Pantheism' teaches that God is at one with and pervasive in all created matter— rocks, germs, cows, maggots, people—which is yet another way of saying – there is no god above us. Taoism teaches that God is an impersonal force ("ki," "chi," "prana" or simply "the force") which is in and is a part of all things—rocks, germs, cows, maggots, people—which is yet another way of saying – there is no god above us. Self-deifying religions (Mormonism, / Hinduism, etc.) teach that people are gods now, or can become gods sometime in the future, which is another way of saying – there is no god above us. (Mormonism teaches that Jesus was a man who became a god, and we—like Jesus—can become the god of our own planet). A few religions—Hinduism / New Age—being extremely loose in their doctrine, incorporate more than one of these teachings into their systems. Many people (the ancient Egyptians, etc.) have worshiped wooden idols, which they have carved to look like animals. Hinduism also incorporates the worship of animals (cows, rats, cobras) into their religion—worshiping them as gods. The remainder of the world’s religions teach that, while a transcendent personal god (or gods) does exist, we do not need his grace, mercy or sacrifice to get to Heaven. We can get to Heaven by self-effort, by doing enough, serving enough or being good enough. We do not need to humble ourselves before God—asking for forgiveness and accepting His authority over us. In other words – we need no god above us.
